Description: As the 500 year anniversary of the Reformation approaches we are reminded that the fight is the same as it was centuries ago. It's a battle for the Bible! We present and address:

- Why we must stand with the Reformation and NOT unite with Rome
- Nine reasons why the Catholic system opposes the Bible on such issues as Idolatry, Faith & Works, Papal Authority, etc.
- Current Ecumenical movements that ignore Scriptural commands
- The deception of “Unity” and its promotion by Protestant and Evangelical leaders
- Many concerns facing Bible-believers about Catholicism today
- Solid facts – direct from Roman teachings in the Catholic Catechism – to answer the drumbeat of “unity” being heard throughout the Evangelical world
- A review of the Reformation and the “Reformers Hall of Fame”.

We'll revisit the men who risked life and freedom to stand with the Bible against a corrupt system five centuries ago. The question is: will we stand with Luther, Tyndale, Wycliffe and others? Or will we ignore their sacrifice – and the Scriptures – all for “unity?”
